

THE FUND FOR PARK AVENUE

April 29, 2013

4/18/13 - Sadie Sink from the Broadway musical "Annie" on Park Avenue

Dear Friends,

Anticipating the blooming of the tulips is a spring ritual in New York City - and along Park Avenue in particular. Now it's time to enjoy them. Up and down the avenue, people are talking about (and photographing) the tulips!

If you missed the article over the weekend in The New York Times about the man behind Park Avenue's tulips, we've included the link to it here.

Thanks to the contributions The Fund receives each year from the community, the Park Avenue malls continue to be a focal point for New Yorkers and visitors alike. Park Avenue is a special place and we should all be proud of the role we play in its upkeep. If you have not yet made a contribution, you can now do so online.

And, once the dates have been set for the annual "Park Avenue Tulip Dig," we will notify everyone by email. Or you may contact us at jpolise@fundforparkavenue.org.

4/25/13 - Park Avenue - what a difference a week makes!

Using contributions from the community, The Fund for Park Avenue is responsible for planting and maintaining the trees and flowers on the Park Avenue malls from 54th to 86th Streets. For more information or to make an online contribution, visit www.fundforparkavenue.org

Coming in June to Park Avenuethe Baby Dragon Wing begonias!
