

THE FUND FOR PARK AVENUE

PARK AVENUE TREE LIGHTING

December 2013

Knickerbocker Greys attended the ceremony to pay tribute to those who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country. A moment of silence was observed while Taps was played by trumpeter, Thomas Hoyt.

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday night marked the 69th year in a row that trees have been lit on Park Avenue to honor the men and women who have lost their lives in our nation's wars. This tradition began after World War II and because of community support, it continues each year. Light snow fell on the crowd assembled outside the Brick Presbyterian Church as they participated in a ceremony that was both a reminder of the original meaning of the lights and a celebration of the holiday season.

Our thanks to those of you who have helped make this possible. If you have not already done so, please consider making a tax-deductible contribution to The Fund for Park Avenue in support of The Park Avenue Tree Lighting.
